The law states that parents must ensure their children regularly attend school to receive their education. The department for education states that Headteachers may not grant any leave of absence during term time unless there are exceptional circumstances. Exceptional is likely to be rare, significant, unavoidable and short. The current law does not give any entitlement to parents to take their child on holiday during term time. Please note that having already booked a holiday will not be considered as a good reason for term time absence. In relation to 'unavoidable' absence, the Headteacher will consider whether the event could have reasonably been scheduled at another time. Issues of cost will not be considered as an exceptional reason.
