

My Great Fire Diary

Imagine you were living in London in 1666 and your house was in Pudding Lane. What would you have been doing, thinking and feeling?

Complete the diary about what happened to you during the first day of the fire.

Sunday 2nd September, 1666

Dear Diary,

What an awful day! I was asleep in my bed when, in the early hours, I was woken up by the sound of people shouting "Fire! Fire!"

I looked out of my window to see flames leaping from Thomas Farriner's bakery!

Soon the fire _____

I felt _____

My Great Fire Diary

Imagine you were living in London in 1666 and your house was in Pudding Lane. What would you have been doing, thinking and feeling?

Complete the diary about what happened to you during the first day of the fire.

Sunday 2nd September, 1666

Dear Diary,

What an awful day! I was asleep in my bed when, in the early hours, I was woken up by the sound of people shouting "Fire! Fire!"

I looked out of my window _____

Soon the fire _____

I felt _____

My Great Fire Diary

Imagine you were living in London in 1666 and your house was in Pudding Lane. What would you have been doing, thinking and feeling?

Complete the diary about what happened to you during the first day of the fire. Remember to include the date of the entry, to write about the events that happened, and to describe the feelings you would have had about the fire.

Dear Diary,

What an awful day! I was asleep in my bed when, in the early hours, I was woken up by the sound of people shouting "Fire! Fire!"
