Dear Parents and Carers,

Re: Christmas Events

Christmas is coming to St Margaret's!

We have some exciting events planned for the lead up to Christmas. Please see further details below. In order to support these events going ahead, we are asking for a contribution of £6.00 towards the cost of the panto, Christmas jumper day donation to Save the Children and Christmas craft. The payment will shortly be available on your MCAS (My Child at School) app.

Monday 9th November – Shine your light day

Children can wear bright colours to school this day, as we come together as a whole school community to pack our Operation Christmas Child Shoe Boxes. Further information to follow.

Tuesday 1st December – Own Clothes Day

Children can wear their own clothes in exchange for a gift for our Christmas hampers. Our Christmas hampers will be showcased and then placed into a Christmas raffle for a lucky winner. More details to follow.

Monday 7th December – Pantomime called “Another Trip to Pantoland”

Panto is coming to St Margaret's where “happily ever after meet complete disasters in this wonderfully wacky fairy-tale twist”. With comedy, catchy songs and plenty of chances to join in, Another Trip to Pantoland brings the magic of pantomime to life for the whole school. There will be two performances, one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

Tuesday 8th December – KS1 and KS2 Christmas Services at St Margaret's Church

9.15am Years 4 – 6 and 10.00am Years 1 – 3. Parents and Carers welcome

Wednesday 9th December – Early Years Christmas Showcase 2.30pm to parents and carers.

Thursday 10th December – Christmas Jumper Day for Save the Children

Children can come to school wearing a Christmas jumper and/or festive accessories. Children can swap their school jumper or cardigan for a festive jumper or top.

Early Years Christmas Showcase 9.30am to parents and carers

Years 1 and 2 Christmas play 1.30pm to parents and carers

Friday 11th December – Years 1 and 2 Christmas play 9.30am to parents and carers

Monday 14th December – Carols by Candlelight 4.30pm – 6.30pm. Further details to follow. Everyone welcome to attend.

Children will be making Christmas crafts in their classes and will be bringing them home today. Christmas hamper draw in assembly.

Friday 18th December – Christmas sing-a-long for all the children 9.00am

An afternoon of festive fun in classes- Come dressed in non-school uniform for an afternoon of fun.

Please do not feel obliged to go out and buy anything special for the above events.

Yours sincerely,

George Lumley
Headteacher
